DISTINGUISHED HONORS

May 29, 1992

HEDRICK L. SMITH

Journalist

An Honorary Degree:

Doctor of Letters

For your distinguished career as a journalist, who as no other, has given the public focus and understanding of the unimagined breakup of the Soviet Union, transformation of Eastern Europe and end of the cold war.

Presented by Jim Yuenger

Foreign Editor, Chicago Tribune

MATHILDE KRIM

Medical Scientist and AIDS Crusader

An Honorary Degree:

Doctor of Science

For your celebrated achievement as a scientist, for your dedicated labor to alert the world community to the AIDS plague, and for your leading advocacy of a comprehensive commitment of public and scientific resources to its remedy.

Presented by Quentin David Young

Chairman, Health & Medicine Policy Research Group

HENRY AARON

Baseball Player and Executive

An Honorary Degree:

Doctor of Humane Letters

As a perfect exemplar of individual excellence and commitment to secure genuine equality of opportunity in professional sports and in American life.
